MI’s offer to the TWI 2050

• Contribute expertise, experience and models for different analysis and scenario scale (national, regional, global) to explore different sustainable development pathways

• Assist partners in reaching out to policy makers and provide transparent and user friendly tools

• Integrate TWI 2050 major findings and policy options in national models
We need to help policy makers right now with the visualization of the consequences, short and long-term, of their decisions to assure that TWI 2050 remains relevant.

Thank you
