The year 2012 witnessed progress on partnership efforts between Government via the Ministry and the World Bank. This was evident through the further endorsement by Cabinet in November 2012 to reform the exiting social protection programs into 2 newly targeted programs. The two programs include the:

i. Poverty Benefit Scheme; and the
ii. Social Pension Schemes

REFORMING FIJI’S SOCIAL PROTECTION
POVERTY BENEFIT SCHEME (2012)

- Household targeted poverty benefit (deviation from the individual targeting of the former Family Assistance),
- Does not include Older Persons
- Currently since 2013 a total of 26,374 families (average of 4) are assisted under the scheme.
• Govt. Social Protection Scheme for Older Persons
• Established in 2013
• A pension tested scheme
• Age eligibility 65+
• Coverage 41,294 Older Persons
• 51.3% of Older Persons
FAMILY INSURANCE FOR WELFARE RECIPIENTS

Older Persons below 70 yrs of age are covered for:

1. injury ($3,000)
2. fire ($3,000)
3. life ($3,000)

Older Persons above 70 yrs of age are covered for funeral benefit ($1,000)
• Both Older Persons aged 60+ and persons with disabilities are provided $40 value on their e-transport cards for public bus transportation on a monthly basis.
Older Persons are also entitled to free medicine.
Income threshold of salary below $20,000 per year

FREE MEDICINE SCHEME
• Currently Fiji has a total of 8 institutional Homes which either specifically or generically provide care for older persons (220 residents).

• 5 Homes who has qualified residents for the welfare scheme do get the assistance.
1. Implementation Issues (collaboration/ resources/ sensitization)
2. Research and Development (impact assessments)
3. Data and information on Ageing
4. Validating realities from Older Persons themselves
5. Administrative mechanism to specifically be responsible for the collaboration and implementation aspects of service delivery on Ageing
6. Legislation specifically for the rights and protection of older persons

CHALLENGES
1. Establish an administration to specifically coordinate activities for implementation
2. Partnership and collaboration
3. Awareness and Sensitization of communities and institutions
4. Conduct periodical surveys
5. Formalize data and information system of collating, analyzing and sharing information (local/ regional/ international)
6. Lobby for a holistic legislation for older persons

WAY FORWARD
THANK YOU FOR LISTENING!
