A CEEW Dialogue
On Air
Pathways to achieving India’s ambient air quality standards

29 March 2019 | 1400 – 1730 hours
Family Room, Hyatt Regency, Bhikaji Cama Place, New Delhi - 110066

Agenda

1400 - 1430  Registration

1430 - 1435  Welcome Address | India’s air quality conundrum
Jamshyd Godrej, Chairperson, Council on Energy, Environment and Water (CEEW)

1435 - 1445  Report Launch | Pathways to achieving India’s ambient air quality standards

1445 - 1455  Briefing presentation on key findings of the report
Dr Pallav Purohit, Research Scholar, Air Quality & Greenhouse Gases, IIASA

1455 – 1535  Panel discussion | Future transitions towards cleaner air
Dr Markus Amann, Program Director, Air Quality & Greenhouse Gases, IIASA
Krishan Dhawan, CEO, Shakti Sustainable Energy Foundation*
Dr Deepanjali Majumdar, Scientist, NEERI
Marylaure Cretaz, Head of Swiss Cooperation Office, Swiss Development Agency*
Dr Chandra Venkatraman, Professor of Chemical Engineering, IIT – Bombay*
Moderator | Dr Hem H. Dholakia, Senior Research Associate, CEEW

1535 - 1545  Tea

Session I What is polluting Delhi’s air? Understanding uncertainties in emission inventories

1545 - 1550  Briefing presentation by Ishita Jalan, Research Analyst, CEEW

1550 - 1625  Audience discussion moderated by Dr Arunabha Ghosh, CEO, CEEW

Session II What is the impact of burning agricultural residue on air quality? Learnings from the field

1625-1630  Briefing presentation by Kurinji Selvaraj, Research Analyst, CEEW

1630-1705  Audience discussion moderated by Karthik Ganesan, Research Fellow, CEEW

1705 - 1710  Vote of thanks

1710 - 1730  High tea

*To be confirmed