

Mercy Shoko is a principal demographer at the South Africa National Statistics Office – Statistics South Africa. She participated in the Southern African Young Scientists Summer Program (SA-YSSP) and the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) Fellowship Program. Her research interest span the demographic processes; mortality, ageing and sexual and reproductive health.