

Profile: Penelope Chauke

Penelope holds a Bachelors and Honours degree in business Management. Her role as an intern in the Strategy, Planning and Partnerships business unit includes supporting the NRF to identify, nurture and advance the strategic partnerships both locally and internationally. Penelope's research interests is in Organisation Management, specifically in growth and sustainability of Small Medium Micro-enterprises. Outside work, her interests are travelling, reading and art.